

McKenzie vows to revive Hyde

MIKE MCKENZIE did not mince his words after the Tigers suffered their second defeat of the weekend.

"We've set our own standards, and we have to live with them. When we play without passion, we pay the price.

"But it's not the end of the world. Everyone is beating everyone else, and we'll bounce back.

"I'm not making excuses, but you're always going to miss players like Gordon Tucker and Colin Little. Our injuries are such that, for this game, I had to name three defenders as substitutes; and I've never done that in my life. But I'll change all that in the next ten days."

Midfield proved to be Hyde's undoing. Winsford never allowed them to settle, and they were left trying to float high balls to the forwards. These were gobbled up by Winsford's big rearguard.

A sign of things to come occurred on 36 minutes, when Jason Danskin's long-range drive beat Arthur Williams, and cannoned against the bar. Fortunately, Williams gathered the rebound before Jock Russell could get to it.

Winsford grabbed the winner six minutes after the break, following a cross

---

Hyde Utd.....0
Winsford Utd ....1

---

from the left by Sammy McIlroy. Elfin Edwards netted with a stooping header.

However, many Tigers' fans left Ashton believing their side deserved at least a point and, despite the lack of pattern, Hyde did have chances.

The best came on 33 minutes, and was instigated by Esdaille. Having won the ball, he played it out, wide; and Robinson got to Carroll's ball-in just before Kimmins.

Hyde: Williams 6, Cox 6, Switzer 7, Wilson 7, Garton 7, Owen 6, Kimmins 7, O'Brien 7, Carroll 6, Esdaille 8, Nolan 6. Subs: Booth, McLellan, Megram.

Winsford: Robinson, Stokes, Hill, Edwards, Bishop, Danskin, M. Farrelly, Russell, P. Farrelly, McIlroy. Subs: Leeming for Stokes (82), Blundell, McKay.

---

Sunderland night for I

A LAST minute goal by Paul Sunderland earned Glossop a draw on Tuesday.

The Hillmen deserved the point after a storming second half in which the visitors were hardly in the game.

Indeed, there was a stronger look about North End with the return of Jez