

Second-half stunner

"YOU were awesome," an Emley director stated to Hyde managing director Bill Paterson, after the Tigers ripped the Yorkshiremen to shreds in the second half of this game, played on Wednesday last week.

Hyde produced a display of stunning football yet, in the first half, the match looked like being a damp squib. In fact, the Tigers were losing within 40 seconds after Shaun Constable gave Emley the lead; but Tony Carroll squared things 11 minutes before the break.

Then came that soccer lesson. Keith Evans headed home his first goal for the club on 49 minutes, and Hyde never looked back. Further strikes followed from Ged
