

Marsh in the way

Chorley 1

Hyde Utd..... 1

HYDE dominated the second half, but saw themselves denied by a succession of goalline clearances.

Former Ewen Fields keeper Simon Marsh played out of his skin, stopped the Tigers on several occasions.

During the first half, the ball was cleared by Billy Garton after a great save by Arthur Williams, hit Paul Cox on the back and flew into goal.

The Tigers equalised on 58 minutes when Keith Evans ended a run by slotting home.

However, the match took its usual injury toll. Keeper Williams was left hobbling, and kicking with his left foot, while Tony Carroll injured and possibly broke a toe.

Hyde: Williams, Cox, Switzer, Wilson, Garton, Henshaw, Evans, Esdaille, Camilleri, Carroll, Nolan. Subs: McLellan, Donnelly for Henshaw, Hawtin for Esdaille.
